Woman and Society

'TIS ALL THAT I CAN SAY

I love thee, I love thee, 'tis all that I can say;
It is my vision in the night, my dreaming in the day.
The very echo of my heart, the blessing when I pray,
I love thee, I love thee, 'tis all that I can say.

I love thee, I love thee, is ever on my tongue,
In all my proudest poesy that chorus still is sung.
It is the verdict of my eyes, amidst the gay and young,
I love thee, I love thee, a thousand maids among.

I love thee, I love thee, thy bright and hazel glance;
The mellow lute upon those lips whose tender tones entrance,
But most, dear heart of hearts, thy proofs that still these words entrance,
I love thee, I love thee, whatever be thy chance.

—TOM HOOD.

Persons giving parties, having visitors or leaving the city are invited to send the information to the Record office either by phone or otherwise. The Record would appreciate it if correspondents would write out the news in a legible hand on one side of the paper. The name of the writer should accompany all news articles in order to insure good faith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Geitner, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Watson and Mrs. Harvey Geitner motored to Charlotte yesterday on business.

Miss Stanley Hall left yesterday for Spencer to attend the annual convention of the Epworth League. Miss Hall, who is reporter for the Advocate, has consented to furnish the Record with the proceedings of the meetings.

Snifty Bunch Entertained.
Miss Louise Jones entertained the Snifty Bunch last night with three tables of Five Hundred. Miss Kate Elliott won the lady's prize, a deck of cards and Mr. C. W. Cloninger the gentleman's prize, also a deck of cards. A salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Kate Elliott. Other guests besides the club members were Miss Gladys Reid and Charles Costner.

PERSONALS

Mr. D. L. Russell returned last night from Gastonia, where he attended Gaston superior court.

Mr. George Hoke of Asheville is in the city today.

Mr. Earle Peterson was called to Clinton on account of the death of his sister yesterday.

OBSERVATIONS

Rev. J. H. Shuford took part in the prayer-services at the Reformed church last Wednesday night. Mr. Shuford will remain in Hickory for the winter perhaps.

Rev. C. B. Heller of Salisbury will arrive in the city this afternoon and will preach at Bethel Reformed church tomorrow at 11 o'clock, at Grace at 3 o'clock and at Startown at night.

Mr. Hugh Williams, who has one of the few bales of cotton purchased last fall under the buy-a-bale movement, is preparing to sell his cotton at an advance of one cent a pound. He will take eleven cents for his, and will clean up something like $5 on the deal.

With cotton selling around eleven cents, and with farmers in this section fortified behind their own home supplies, the calamity howler is never heard. General prosperity is reported from every section, and hundreds of farmers will not be paying big fertilizer bills this fall.

Deliver Special Address to Synod of Potomac.

Dr. J. L. Murphy has been invited to deliver a special address before the meeting of the Synod of the Potomac to be held in Greencastle, Pa., in October.

Adequate Defense.

James E. Peters, colored arraigned in criminal court of Atlantic City on a charge of atrocious assault and battery, preferred by William Waters, who claimed Peters bounced a brick off his head, entered a plea of self-defense, says the Philadelphia Record.

"Explain yourself," ordered the court.

"Well, the fustest thing Ah hit was the sidewalk," said the prisoner. "Ah was a-standin' quite-like, tending to mah own affairs when dis yeah niggah and defen' myself. Ah done bus' him with thuh brick befoah he can see me. Dat's jes' thuh case, yuah honah," explained Peters.

Waters is still packing a broken head after two weeks in the city hospital.

"From the looks of the complaining witness it would seem your self-defense was entirely adequate," smiled the court, in deferring sentence.

"Yes, it wuh, yo honah. Ah done bus thuh brick," responded the prisoner.

LIBRARY HOURS BE DECIDED BY VOTE

The governing board of the Hickory Library want an expression of opinion from Hickory citizens, including the boys and girls, as to when the library should be kept open. Fill in this coupon and leave it at the Record office. The management has practically decided that it will be kept open every afternoon. Express your choice of hours in afternoon. Also express your choice of two nights in the week, with hours that you think would be most advantageous:

State hours —————
Nights. —————
(Put a cross after the two nights you prefer, with hour of opening and closing.)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday

The executive committee of the library think they can raise considerable revenue for buying new books through the sale of old papers that have accumulated in homes and offices and will appreciate it very much if all persons having such papers will notify Mr. A. K. Joy, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, of such papers, and they will be gathered and sold for the benefit of the library. Flat magazines, such as the Saturday Evening Post, can also be sold.

WINDY CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. W. H. Bowman and children have gone to Alexander county to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Mr. R. D. McKee and Miss Ellen Setzer of Newton and Mrs. J. S. McKee of Richmond, Va., are guests of Mrs. L. A. McKee.

Mr. E. W. Woods and family left yesterday for Boone, where they will spend a few days. An accident to the axle of his car at Sawmills delayed them some time.

UNION SERVICE AT WEST HICKORY METHODIST CHURCH

There will be a union service of the Methodist and Baptist congregations, in West Hickory Methodist church at 7:15 p. m., and short addresses will be made by Rev. W. M. Cook, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. E. O. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church. The purpose of this meeting will be to arouse interest in civic improvement, and all citizens of West Hickory are urged to be present.

SCOUT CAMPAIGN HAS STARTED IN EARNEST

At a joint meeting of the two troops in the Chamber of Commerce last night, final preparations were made for the campaign today and things started off with a rush. The clever clock device was put into use again and the Van Dyke Book store window attracted hosts of time gazers—"watching the hands go round!" With every $5 the clock hand moves a minute; one scout succeeded in moving it forward over 5 minutes.

Every public-spirited citizen will be asked to help the boys in their campaign. If you have not been approached to do so, volunteer. Don't wait to be asked. Contribute toward the success of the effort of the bright, active members of Hickory's "Junior Citizenship." Chip in before seven o'clock today.

Kindergarten to Open Monday, Sept. 27

I beg to announce to the public that I will open my kindergarten on Monday, September 27, for the coming season.

Every father and mother should think a moment as to what it will mean to their child to enter kindergarten and prepare itself to lay the foundation for a cultured, useful life, along the lines of how it has helped their lives to unfold in the image of their creator. You will never regret the day you have entered your child's name on the roll-call book of a kindergarten. Anyone who is interested in sending his child to the kindergarten will kindly telephone 28-J, or call at 1205 13th St. 9-23-1wk.

"Bob—this is SOME thirst-quencher"

Some thirst-quencher is right! The most tiring games are well worth the energy if followed by a cool glass of Pepsi-Cola.

Not only delicious and wholesome, but invigorating at all times—after contexts of brain or brawn. And in the home it has the same appetizing and comfort-giving effects. You can get it at the fountain—or carbonated in bottles, at your grocer's.
